Newsletter of the Mighty South London branch of the TRIUMPH Owners Motor Cycle Club

The management would like to take this opportunity to wish all our readers a happy Christmas, and a successful New Year.

Quiz Night

The annual quiz was held in our usual venue, where five teams took part. The winners were the Brass Monkeys, Martin's team, with 36½. Runners up was Dave Ede, making a welcome return to the club after many years, and third was Bob's team.

The highlight of the evening was the wooden spooners, Salsazian – two young ladies who started the quiz, imbibed rather a lot of Red Bull and vodka, serenaded us, and then disappeared!

We raised £40 for the Tadworth childrens hospital Dot

The following Sunday we had our little run up to the hospital where, as usual, some of the kids came out to see us and the bikes. After coffee and mince pies, we gave the Trust a cheque for £500, the result of the quiz, collection, and donation from branch funds.

Don't forget the runs over the holiday period –

Boxing Day, Monday, is to the Well House Inn, Mugswell CR5 3SQ. Red tree layby A217 1115 Not far as the crow flies, but we'll have a run around the lanes on the way.

New Years Day, again at the Red tree layby 1115, to the Surrey Oaks, Parkgate Rd, Newdigate RH5 5DZ.
