JULY 2014

Newsletter of the Mighty South London branch of the TRIUMPH Owners Motor Cycle Club

BRANCH BBQ

Not an outstanding attendance, despite it being that very rare phenomenon, a fine, British, summers evening. Still, an enjoyable couple of hours.

CLUB RUN TO NEWDIGATE

A change from the original list. We hadn't intended to do the usual run to Newdigate, but the planned destination closed at 9pm, so Fred thought we'd give the Surrey Oaks another go. As it turned out the place is under new management, and we were really looked after. Probably put this back on the list... A good turnout, and the first run this year with good weather.

TRIP TO YPRES

Debbie at Surrey branch is organising a trip to Ypres departing Friday 15 May 2015 for 3 nights returning on Monday 18th.

Accommodation will probably be in twin or double rooms at the Best Western Flandres hotel.

Cost for 3 nights is £206 based on 2 sharing and includes full breakfast. The hotel has a car park.

Travel will be arranged for the Eurotunnel as and when names and numbers have been agreed.

If anyone is interested, they will need to pay a non refundable deposit to hold the rooms.

Names to be sent to Debbie preferably via the Surrey face book page, or alternatively given to me to pass on.

BOB'S RUN TO HORAM

The annual chance to top up on carbohydrates, calories, and cholesterol. Ride down to Wessons Café, Horam for a proper breakfast. Horam is conveniently placed for onward rides, and we usually split up from there – Eastbourne, Hastings, & the Bluebell Railway being visited on past trips. Sunday 31st August, meet at Godstone Pond, on the A25, at 1030.
